A refund policy is in place in the event your care must be transferred to a physician due to complications that make Homebirth an unsafe alternative for you and/or your baby. No refunds are made once labor begins.

My service agreement to you includes but is not limited to the following:

You will receive quality prenatal care every three weeks through the 28th week, then your pre-natal care will be every 2 weeks until the 36th week, at which time I will see you every week until you deliver and more often if necessary. Each prenatal visit is usually 1 hour in length. Besides developing our rapport, each visit will consist of a routine health check (blood pressure check, pulse, weight, nutrition, palpation of baby, fundal height, baby's heart tones) and an opportunity for you to have your questions answered.

When you are in labor, you will call me, and when you are ready for me to be with you I will come to your home. I will support you and care for you during labor, assist you in the delivery of your baby, remain with you for approximately 2-4 hrs. after your birth to monitor you and your baby making sure that both of you are stable, that you have been nourished, that your baby is nursing, that you are not bleeding excessively, that your blood pressure is stable, that your baby's temperature, heart rate, and respirations are stable. I will help you with your bath or shower after the birth and change your sheets on the bed. I will leave your birth place neat and tidied.

Once you have delivered, I will see you again for approximately 5 more visits postpartum. The first postpartum visit will be on the first day after delivery, then the third day, the tenth day, three weeks and six weeks. If everything regarding your health and the baby's health related to pregnancy, birth and the postpartum period are found to be normal, I will release you from my care at that time. If you are interested in a Pap smear at your six-week visit, that can be arranged.
